Trentino Rounded

With its rounded front profile this awning type blends harmoniously into the façade of traditional classic architecture.

The Angular and Rounded model variants of the Trentino full-cassette awning offer versatile design options for large patios and balconies. The Angular type with its linear, angular front profile forms the perfect complement to modern geometrical architecture, while the design of the Trentino Rounded model was developed with classical construction styles in mind.

Rounded type

The rounded front profile with its soft contours sets the right tone for traditional construction forms.
